

about us

Georgian Young Lawyers' Association (GYLA) is the non-commercial legal person. We operate across the entire territory of Georgia in accordance with the Constitution, Legislation, and our own Statute. The organizational-legal form of GYLA is the union. The goals of the Georgian Young Lawyers' Association are:

- o Establishing the norms of professional ethics among lawyers;
- o Professional growth and increasing the qualification of lawyers;
- o Protection of Human Rights and Freedoms;
- o Increasing the legal awareness among the public and establishing respect towards the law;
- o Creation of the legislative base, necessary for the proper operation of the civil society and the rule-of-law based state.

The major mission of GYLA is "Supremacy of Law for the Fairness!"
