

Coalition for Media Advocacy urges the Public Broadcaster to elaborate on issues of conflict of interests within the organization

Coalition for Media Advocacy wrote a letter to the General Director and the Chairperson of the Public Broadcaster, inquiring about the broadcaster's interpretation of conflict of interests and its practice of the Code of Conduct, with reference to the dismissal of Eka Mishveladze as Pirveli Studio talk show host and selective application of regulations of conflict of interests.