GYLA Referred the Application of Convict Chikhladze to the Office of the Prosecutor and Requested a Probe

On September 28, 2012, convict Giorgi Chikhladze applied to the chairperson Georgian Young Lawyers' Association with an application, describing human rights violations that he was subjected to during his arrest on June 30, 2011. The convict explains that Data Akhalaia was also involved in these illegal actions together with other individuals.
