Zurab Vazagashvili's parents applied to GYLA. They consider that a phrase used in the program "Vazagashvili was a member of an armed group" – was false information.

The complaint was submitted to self-regulation body of a public broadcaster, by which Zura Vazagashvili's parents claimed to repudiate broadcasted information. Lawyers from GYLA Media Legal Defense Center will protect Vazagashvili's interests.

GYLA hopes that self-regulation body of a public broadcaster will examine the complaint timely in an objective and unbiased manner.
