

Coalition "for an Independent and Transparent Judiciary"

Coalition "for an Independent and Transparent Judiciary" was established on April 29, 2011 and it unites 40 nongovernmental organizations. The goal of the Coalition is to integrate efforts of human right organizations, professional and business associations and media representatives to create an independent, transparent and accountable justice system.

The main directions of the Coalition's activities are research and monitoring, developing recommendations on judicial system reforms, conducting advocacy and public discussions on the acute problems of the justice system.
